DETAILED ACTION

Art Rejections:

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1-4 and 7-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Luzeski et al, U.S. pat. No. 6,301,245.

Luzeski discloses an open architecture communication system comprising:

- a) an interface (gateway 15, fig. 1) to a data network (see col 5, lines 41-43),
- b) an interface (gateway/router 10-3, 10-6, fig. 1) to a resource providing a service such as email, voice/fax mails (col 18, lines

- 24-41), telephone (x.400 server), text-to-speech server (10-7, fig.
- 4j) (see col 22, lines 18-33),
- c) a resource manager (10-5, fig. 1) for tracking availability of the resource (col 8, lines 17-30),
- d) a web server (12, fig. 1) for receiving from a client browser (22, fig. 1), coupled to the data network, a object-oriented language independent request (JAVA applet) for access the resource (see col 4, lines 54-67).
- 3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
- (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claims 5-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 as being unpatentable over Luzeski in view of Osder et al, U.S. pat. No. 6,058,166.

Luzeski's teachings are still applied as discussed above.

Luzeski does not explicitly disclose a speech recognition device.

The use of speech recognition device to enable user accessing the message center using voice commands is well known in the art (see Osder's col 3, lines 1-25).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize such speech recognition system in Luzeski because it would have enabled users to access the message center using voice commands (see Luzeski's col 22, lines 1-17).

Conclusion:

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Viet Vu whose telephone number is $(703)\ 305-9597$. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Thursday from 8:00am to 4:00pm.
